WHAT I DON'T SPEAK FROM THE AMBO:

LO QUE NO DIGO DESDE EL AMBÓN:

The Lord is my shepherd...

Hi there!

We have now reached the Fourth Sunday of Easter. Since March 22, we have not been able to meet as a parish community and have not celebrated the Eucharist together in the church. On the one hand, this makes us sad, but on the other hand, the desire to meet again will make that future event one of great joy that we should look forward to.

Today's Responsorial Psalm reminds us that "the Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want." I think this is very appropriate right now. What else do you need if you have God in your life? Today's Psalm refers to that First Commandment... "You shall love God above all things" and if you love him... then what do you need?

Historians have written about the time when St. Thomas Aquinas finished writing and composing the Mass and the hymns for the Feast of Corpus Christi. His crucifix spoke to St. Thomas by congratulating him for the good work he did in writing about the Eucharist. He asked him what he wanted as a reward... St. Thomas' answer "to love you more." I think that the only thing we need in life is to love God more. If we think that we love Him a lot, then in reality we still need a lot to be able to say that we love Him... as Buzz Lightyear says, "To infinity and beyond!"

Remember during this pandemic... The Lord is your Shepherd... there is nothing you should be worrying about.

In the arms of Mary and the protection of St. Clare,
El padre

El señor es mi pastor...

¡Hola a todos!

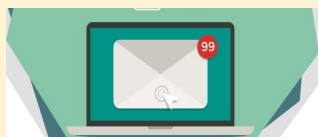

Ya llegamos al 4to domingo de Pascua... desde el 22 de marzo no nos hemos reunido como comunidad parroquial y no hemos celebrado la Eucaristía juntos en el templo. Esto por un lado nos da tristeza, pero de otra parte el deseo de reunirnos otra vez hará de ese momento uno de mucha alegría.

El salmo responsorial de hoy nos recuerda que "el Señor es mi pastor, nada me falta" y pienso que es muy apropiado para el tiempo que estamos viviendo. ¿Qué te falta si tienes a Dios en tu vida? El salmo de hoy nos hace referencia a ese primer mandamiento... "Amarás a Dios sobre todas las cosas" y si le amas... entonces ¿Qué te falta?

Cuentan los que saben que cuando Santo Tomas de Aquino terminó de escribir y componer la misa y los himnos de la fiesta de Corpus Christi, que su crucifijo le habló y luego de felicitarle por lo bien que había escrito sobre la Eucaristía, le preguntó que quería... la contestación de Santo Tomas "que te ame mas" yo pienso que lo único que nos hace falta en la vida es amar mas a Dios y si pensamos que lo amamos mucho... en realidad nos falta todavía mucho para poder decir que lo amamos... como dice buzz lightyear... al infinito y mas allá

Recuerda en estos momentos de pandemia... El señor es tu pastor... Nada te falta ni te faltará.
