Priest Convocation

Welcome to the Diocese of Orlando
Priests' Convocation

Each year the Diocese of Orlando holds the annual Priest Convocation, the week of Labor Day. Derived from the Latin word convocare – meaning “to call together” - convocation is a time for the Priests of the Diocese to gather with the Bishop for an official period of spiritual renewal, continuing education, and administrative planning.

Fr. Hector will be at Convocation this week and there will be NO Morning Mass Tuesday, September 8 through Friday, September 11.

What does it mean to ‘LIVE’ as a parishioner of St. Clare Catholic Community? As a parish family, we are called to journey together in faith, in worship, and in service. To be considered an active parishioner, we invite ALL to:

- Formally register and be present in the life of our parish community.
 - Faithfully attend Sunday Mass and holy days of obligation, joining in the heart of our worship.
 - Support the parish through financial giving, according to the blessings God has entrusted to you. This can be done regularly by placing your offertory envelope in the collection basket or by using our online giving platform.
 - Your active participation allows us to support one another more fully in the life of faith. It also helps in providing:
 - Letters of sacramental sponsorship for Baptism or Confirmation
 - Preparation and celebration of the Sacraments – Baptism, First Holy Communion, Confirmation, and Marriage here at St. Clare
 - Access to parishioner tuition rates at Catholic schools in the Diocese
- We are reminded that stewardship is not about equal gifts, but about equal sacrifice, offered in gratitude for all God has given us.

Please note: If no envelopes or online gifts are received for nine months, your registration will be marked as inactive, and envelopes will no longer be mailed.

Even if you participate in online giving or do not want your giving recorded, we still ask you to place your empty envelope in the collection basket at Sunday Mass to show “active” participation in the life of the parish.
